

Private and Confidential

Each time we learn of a new bequest, there is renewed energy and spirit in the whole Institute. It would mean a tremendous amount for my team and I to learn that you intend to include the Centenary Institute Medical Research Foundation in your Will. – Professor Mathew Vadas, Executive Director.

Dear Professor Vadas,

I understand that my answers to the questions below will be treated in confidence. I realise this document is not legally binding, but will help the Centenary Institute with future planning.

I have included a gift to the Centenary Institute Medical Research Foundation in my Will.

I am intending to include the Centenary Institute Medical Research Foundation in my Will.

I am considering including the Centenary Institute Medical Research Foundation in my Will.

I am happy to advise you that my bequest choice is

Residual Bequest of _____ of my estate

Pecuniary Bequest of $ _____

Specific Bequest of _____ item/s

BQ0L

MY CONTACT DETAILS

Title: _____ First name: _____

Surname: _____

Address: _____

Suburb: _____ State: _____ Postcode: _____

Date of birth: _____

Mobile phone number: _____

Home phone number: _____

Work phone number: _____

Thank you for thinking about including
Centenary Institute Medical Research
Foundation in your Will

Please complete this form and return it to: Bequest Manager
Centenary Institute
Reply Paid 83998
NEWTOWN NSW 2042

Please complete this form and return it to me via: donations@centenary.org.au

If for any reason you do not wish to receive our appeal information please write to us Centenary Institute, Locked bag 6 Newtown NSW 2042. We respect your privacy so should you have any questions about privacy please call 1800 677 977.