Direct Debit Request Service Agreement

I/We authorise the Centenary Institute to arrange for funds to be debited from my/our account at the financial institution identified on the Direct Debit Request and as prescribed through the Bulk Electronic Clearing System (BECS). This authorisation is to remain in force in accordance with the terms described in the following service agreement:

1. Direct debiting is not available on the full range of accounts. If in doubt, please refer to your Financial Institution.
2. You are advised to check your account details by contacting your Financial Institution.
3. It is your responsibility to ensure sufficient clear funds are in the nominated account when payments are to be drawn. If the transaction is returned unpaid, any dishonour fees payable by the Centenary Institute in respect to this agreement will be added to your next month's drawing.
4. Should you wish to cancel, defer or make alterations to the direct debit arrangement, please provide written notice to Centenary Institute, Reply Paid 83998 NEWTOWN NSW 2042, at least 14 business days prior to the due date. We will give you 14 days notice if we vary any of the debit arrangements.
5. Should you have any queries or dispute any debit item, please contact the Centenary Institute in the first instance. Alternatively, you can take it up with your financial institute.
6. Your records and account details will be kept private and confidential to be disclosed only if requested by yourself or the Financial Institution if a claim is made for an alleged incorrect or wrongful debit.

Payments will be debited on the 1st of each month. If the 1st is not a day that falls on a Banking Day, we may direct your financial institution to debit your account on the following Banking Day. If you are unsure about which day your account has or will be debited you should ask your financial institution.

PRIVACY

The Centenary Institute really values our relationship with you. We wish to keep in touch and keep you informed about our work. It is only with support of people like you that we can continue to make a real difference to finding new preventions, treatments and even cures for cancer, cardiovascular disease and infectious diseases. We recognise the importance of your privacy and the safeguarding of your personal information. We are careful with all your details and will use them to contact you about issues we believe will be important to you. If you do not wish to receive further communications from the Centenary Institute please call us on 1800 677 977 or tick this box

The Centenary Institute respects your privacy. Occasionally the Centenary Institute may allow other organisations to contact you with information that may be of interest to you. These organisations allow us to do the same and this way we can reach more people with vital information. Please tick here if you do not wish to receive communications from a third party.
